RECONSTRUCTION — The Charleston correspondent of the Baltimore American says that the reconstruction of the Federal Government is much talked of at present among the politicians of that city. This reconstruction, the thinks, might ultimately find favor with the people of South Carolina, "provided New England, that plague spot of the continent were excluded." Georgia, he thinks, may possibly propose such a reconstruction as would exclude the States controlled by the spirit of abolition. There are many in Georgia however who prefer absolute State independence to joining in a Southern Courseleracy, unless its policy should be agreeable to ticians of that city. This reconstruction, he chinks, might ultimately find favor with the people of South Carolina, "provided New England, that plague epot of the continent, were excluded." FOUND DEAD.—On Saturday last, the dead body of a nagre man was finned in a been field upon the farm of Thomas II. Wilson, on Cooper's Run, in Bourbon county. The Paris Citizen says that he had evidently been dead for two weeks or more, and the cause of his death could not be certainly accertained. It is probable, however, that his death was caused by exposure. The body was not identified, but it is believed to have been that of Peter Grant, a well-known free rest, to consider and, if possible, agree.

It appears from official sources that representations concerning tha troubles of foreign vessels in Charlesten harbor have been made at this footorimment by British, Spanish, and Ilremen Ministers. Secretary Blacks reply is to the effect that the President would deeply regret that any injury should happen to the commerce of foreign or friendly nations, and especially that Ilritish subjects as a phapen to the commerce of foreign or friendly nations, and especially that Ilritish subjects as a foreign that Ilritish subjects as a foreign that Ilritish subjects a foreign the penalties in the Helps of the subject as a foreign that there was no cause for sundering the Federal Government to collect duty on imports is exclusive. Whether the existing state of things at Charleston will or will not be regarded splicitly active. He will not be regarded splicitly provided by the anomality of the subject is a question which had Lyons will see no necessity for raising until typactically arises. Each case will doubles have its peculiarities. Illack regrets that this consideration compels him to declina to give any assurances on the point presented.

The Ireasury Department will give public information of the condition in which Carolina puts the port.

The select committee examined about 12 witnesses in the alleged conspiracy in seize the Capital. Nothing startling was elicited. Gen. Scott was before them two hours to-day. He said there we had the part of the foreign to the case of the secessing States. In the course of his remarks, he said the Border States renounce the nearest of the spirit of corollation. consideration compels him to declina to give any assurances on the point presented.

The select committee examined about 12 witnesses in the alleged conspiracy in seize the Capital. Nothing startling was elicited. Gen. Scott was lefore them two hours to-day. He said there was anundant evidence to his mind to justify him in making milltary preparations, though it was not of the strongest character. There is certainly nothing to show that an organization for that purpose exists in the District.
